Numb. 5928

The Daily Courant.

Tueſday, October 18. 1720.

London, October 18.

On Sunday Evening late arrived a Mail from Holland.

Lisbon, October 1.

WE have received Advices of the Brazil Fleet's being ſafely arrived in the Rio de Janeiro, and that two French Ships belonging to the India Company have been ſeized there on account of their trading to the Brazils, and were convoyed by two Men of War to the Rio. Publick Devotions are appointed to be performed here againſt the Plague, and Guards are poſted along the Coaſts to make a ſtrict Search on board of all Ships that ſhall touch at any of our Ports. It is reported that the Abbot de Mornay, the French Ambaſſadour at this Court, is to be made Archbiſhop of Bezançon; he had lately his Audience of Leave from the King and the Queen, and is on his Departure from this Place, deſigning to go through Spain to Paris. A Son of M. de Mendonça, together with Sen. Marc Antonio de Azevedo, have received Orders to attend the Affairs of this Court at the enſuing Congreſs at Cambray.

Madrid, Oct. 1. The King and Queen are expected here from Balſain about the middle of this Month. The Duke de Jovenazzo is gone to his Government of Old Caſtile, and the Prince de Caſtillon to his of Navarre. The Duke de l'Infantado is arrived here from one of his Eſtates, and 'tis conjectured by ſome, that he is to be admitted to a Share in the Miniſtry, from which he has remained excluded ever ſince the Demiſe of Charles the Second, on account of his Affection to the Houſe of Auſtria. The Marqueſs de Lede continues yet at Cadiz, and has only been to make a Tour to Malaga; but 'tis generally aſſured he found in both thoſe Places ſo great a Defect in the Preparations relating to the intended Expedition as makes it uncertain when it will be undertaken. Our laſt Advices from Ceuta make no mention of the Moors being much alarmed on account of this Armament; and that they are buſy only in repairing and augmenting the Fortifications about La Rache. The Marqueſs de Maulevrier is daily expected here from France, as is likewiſe Don Antonio Guedes Pereira from Lisbon, in Quality of Reſident from the King of Portugal, after whoſe Arrival Don Lewis d'Acunha, Ambaſſadour from that Crown, is to ſet out from hence for Paris, in order to go to the Congreſs at Cambray with the Character of one of the Plenipotentiaries for the King of Portugal.

Vienna, Oct. 9. On the 28th of laſt Month the Emperour held a private Council concerning the meeting of the Congreſs at Cambray, and as ſome late Advices give an Account that the Plague ſpreads more and more in France, his Imperial Majeſty is reſolved to ſend Orders to his Plenipotentiary-Miniſters at Paris and at the Hague to ſuſpend their Departure till a further Judgment can be made of the Progreſs of that Diſtemper, which, ſhould it increaſe, might give ſome Diſturbance to the Conferences appointed to be held at Cambray; purſuant to this Reſolution, an Order is made publick, requiring all Perſons coming from France into the Low-Countries belonging to the Emperour, to perform Quarantain upon the Frontiers. It is very confidently reported here, that the Earl of Cadogan has declared to the Emperour, on the Part of the Kings of Great Britain and Pruſſia, that their Majeſties are diſpoſed to put a Stop in 15 Days to the Reprisals in their Dominions, on Condition that his Imperial Majeſty will grant Redreſs to the oppreſſed Proteſtants: Upon which, it is ſaid, that the Emperour has diſpatched an Expreſs to Ratisbon, with Orders to Cardinal Saxe-Zeits to notify to the Imperial Diet his Imperial Majeſty's Deſire for putting an End to all the late Grievances of the Proteſtants in a Month's Time, and 'tis hoped, in caſe this Report proves true, that all the former Grievances will be immediately terminated at Ratisbon, without requiring an extraordinary Deputation of the Empire for that Purpoſe. It is ſaid that Sig. Albani has complained at this Court, on occaſion of the Emperour's not having communicated to his Holineſs the Proceedings relating to the Affairs of Religion, and eſpecially the laſt Reſolution which his Imperial Majeſty ſent to Ratisbon; intimating, that he would proteſt in the Pope's Name againſt every thing that ſhall be tranſacted to the Prejudice of his Holineſs's Authority: It is ſaid likewiſe, that he inſinuated at the ſame time, that the Pope will not ſuffer the Countries of Parma, Plaiſença, and Tuſcany, to be held of the Empire by vertue of the Quadruple Alliance, the holy Father having already ordered his Proteſtations againſt it to be made in the Imperial Diet. As the Differences relating to Religion are on the Point of being terminated, 'tis not at all doubted but his Impetial Majeſty will give the Inveſtiture of the Dutchies of Bremen and Vehrden to his Britannick Majeſty, and that of Stettin to the King of Pruſſia. Baron Houldenberg, Envoy from his Britannick Majeſty as Elector of Hanover, has already received full Powers to that purpoſe. The late Diſpatches from Rome are full of Complaints againſt Cardinal Althan, for his having cauſed the Milan Poſt to be ſtopped, and the Letters to be taken out of the Mail before they were perfumed, but this Court approving of the Cardinal's Proceedings in that Particular, 'tis likely thoſe Complaints will come to nothing. Baron Plettenberg, Miniſter of the Prince and Biſhop of Munſter and Paderborn, is arrived here from Ratisbon, as is alſo Baron Schutz from the Duke of Wirtemberg. Count Kinski, Brother to the Chancellour of Bohemia, is appointed Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperour to the Czar of Muſcovy. Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg is made a Privy Councellour, and has taken the proper Oaths relating to that Office; he is lately ſet out for his Government of Belgrade. Prince Emanuel of Savoy is likewiſe gone to make a Tour to his Territories in Bohemia.

Hague, Oct. 22. 'The Count de Morville has 'obtained Leave to make a Tour to Paris before 'he goes to Cambray, accordingly he ſets out 'To-morrow Morning with his Lady, but has ſent 'the reſt of his Family and Equipage to Cambray; to which Place the Emperour and King 'of Spain's Ambaſſadours are preparing to go very 'ſoon. M. de Staremberg, Preſident of the 'Council of Holland, was taken ſome Days ago 'with a Fit of an Apoplexy; he is ſince a little 'better, but being 72 Years old his Friends are 'in Pain for his Recovery. Before he fell ſick he 'had reſigned his Poſt of Chief Huntſman to M. 'de Nortwick, one of the Nobles of Holland.

'The

John Marshall, Maker of Optick Glasses to his Majesty.

At the Archimides in Ludgate-street, London, having by long Experience observed that Abundance of Peoples Sight is spoiled by using false Spectacles sold by Toymen and other ignorant Persons. To prevent which, he doth set the Age on the Frame, for every one to know the Sight they wear; for it often happens, that a Person of 30 takes Spectacles of 60 or 70, to the spoiling of their Sight, whereas if the Age had been known by the Buyer, he would not have used them. By the use of true Spectacles the Sight is much preserved, so that many Persons of 60 or 70 Years of Age, can on occasion read without them. Also Reading-Glasses and Spectacles of Rock Crystal, as well as Glass; Microscopes, Telescopes, and all other Optick Glasses, made to the exactest Perfection by him who is the only Person approved of by the Royal Society for the Art of Glass Grinding. John Marshall.
